These are parts of the library website most commonly used by students in Nursing programs:

- Search multiple databases at once! It's like a Google search for the library.
- Start your research here. These are customized lists to help you get your research done!
- Contact us or book a research appointment: email, phone, chat
- Go deeper with your search! Choose a specific database to search.
- Need help with APA? Check out our APA guide.